Cut yarn to leave 6" tail; pull tail through remaining 4 sts and pull tight. Weave tail in using darning needle.

I do this with the mitt on my left hand so I can see any areas there may be gaps I can fill in.

These mittens by themselves are warm, but the best way we've found to keep our kids' hands and fingers warm while out playing in the Minnesota snow is to have them wear a pair of the cheap stretchy (magic) finger gloves underneath. Hope this is helpful!
